Volunteers are the heart of the Festival!

Every summer, countless volunteers join our staff on the grounds of Rockwood and help to make DSF a great success. Volunteers give their time and talents and keep the festival running smoothly. From ushering, to selling concessions, to working in the box office, there is an opportunity for you! Volunteering is a great way to meet new people and is also a great way to see Macbeth in action. DSF welcomes a new "Festival Friend": Serviam Girls Academy

DSF is proud to announce an exciting new partnership this summer. An anonymous donor has generously contributed at the sponsorship level of $1,000 in honor of Serviam Girls Academy. With this innovative patron support, Serviam will be featured as a "Festival Friend" sponsor for Macbeth, receiving all sponsorship benefits for that level. DSF gains a new sponsor, and our generous donor receives the benefit of supporting two causes close to her heart. Please click here to learn more about Serviam Girls Academy. It's never too late to become a sponsor for Macbeth. Please click here for more information.

Macbeth rehearsals are underway!

We are almost finished our second week of rehearsals for Macbeth, and the show promises to be one of DSF's best productions. The actors and designers are hard at work bringing the world of 11th century Scotland to life. Don't miss your chance to see Macbeth, July 16-31 at Rockwood Mansion Park!

David Blatt as Macbeth and Allyson Sands Good as Lady Macbeth.

This program is made possible, in part, by a grant from the Delaware Division of the Arts, a state agency dedicated to nurturing and supporting the arts in Delaware, in partnership with the National Endowment for the Arts.
